2020 Personal Income Tax Returns

These questions are on the personal income tax form. Please answer the following questions on behalf of each member of your family:	YES	NO
1) Did you sell your home or vacation property during the year? If yes, please provide legal address, proceeds and year of acquisition. Failure to disclose the sale of your home or vacation property could result in large tax penalties. CRA now requires this sale to be reported even if no tax is payable.
2) Are all family members set up for direct deposit? If yes, has CRA been notified of the most up-to-date bank account information? If no, Taxpayers are being strongly encouraged to enroll in direct deposit for all their federal government payments. If you have not yet been set-up for direct deposit with CRA, we urge you to do this at this time. This can be done by phone (call 1-800-959-8281), online or by mail by completing the Canada direct deposit enrolment form and mailing it to the address on the form.
3) Are you a Canadian Citizen? If you are a U.S. citizen, dual citizen or green card holder, you have a U.S. tax filing obligation. Please contact us for further information.
4) As a Canadian Citizen, do you authorize CRA to provide your name, address, date of birth and citizenship to Elections Canada for the National Registry of Electors?
5) Did you own or hold foreign property at any time in 2020 with a total cost of more than CAN $100,000? Foreign property includes stocks, bonds and income producing property. It does not include foreign investments held through Canadian mutual funds or personal use properties. If yes, then Form T1135 or Form T1142 must be completed, signed and filed with Canada Revenue Agency on or before the T1 due date, or penalties will apply. Penalties can reach $2,500 for each year.
6) Did you earn any income or realize any gains from foreign property in 2020?
7) At any time in 2020, did you receive funds or property from, or were you indebted to a non-resident trust in which you were beneficially interested? If yes, the Form T1142 must be completed, signed and filed with Canada Revenue Agency on or before the T1 due date, or penalties will apply. Penalties can reach $2,500 for each year.
8) Were you required to work from home due to Covid-19 and wish to claim the work space in home expense deduction? Please advise us whether you would like to make the claim under the detailed method or the flat rate method ($2/day up to a maximum of $400). If you wish to make a claim using the detailed method, you should reach out to your employer to ensure you get a signed T2200S (this is required to make a claim using the detailed method). In addition, all supporting invoices should be kept to support the claim under the detailed method. To make a claim on your 2020 tax return, please complete Home Office Worksheet summarizing the home office expenses you incurred during the year and your workspace. If you would like to make a claim using the temporary flat rate method, please advise us of the number of working days you worked from home due to Covid-19. For more information, visit our website here .	<input type="checkbox"/> Detailed Method?	<input type="checkbox"/> Flat Rate? <input type="text"/> # of days worked from home
